

Session 1B: The Chittenden Parlor

Speaker: Professor Laurence C. Gerckens
City and Regional Planning Department
The Ohio State University

Title: Alfred Bettman on "Euclid": Letters from the Bettman Files

Respondent: John Mullin*

Session 1C: The Hartman Parlor

Speaker: Professor Jane S. Brooks, Assistant Professor
School of Urban and Regional Studies
University of New Orleans

Title: Video Documentary and Commentary: "Goin' Down to the River," Historic Development and Future of the New Orleans Waterfront

10:00 -10:40 am: Papers on American Planning History (Session No. 2)

Session 2A: The Deshler Parlor

Speaker: Charles E. Connerly, Assistant Professor
Dept. of Urban and Regional Planning
Florida State University

Title: Explanations for the Deemphasis of Public Housing:
1961-1983.

Moderator: Roger Montgomery

Respondent: Peter Marcuse

Session 2B: The Chittenden Parlor

Speaker: Carl Abbott, Professor
Dept. of Urban Studies and Planning
Portland State University, Oregon

Title: Planning on the Home Front: West Coast Cities in World War II

* Indicates unconfirmed at time this program had to go to press.

Session 2C: The Hartman Parlor

Subject: Research Sources for City and Regional Planning History

Resource: Jane M. McMaster, Research Librarian
The Ohio State University

11:00 - 11:40 am: Papers on American Planning History (Session No. 3)

Session 3A: The Deshler Parlor

Speaker: David J. Allor, Associate Professor
School of Planning
University of Cincinnati

Title: The Development of the Practitioner's Art:
Ladislav Segoe, 1921-1968

*Civil engineer
by training / growth management
- after W.W.II does the great plans
Detroit, S.F., Lexington, etc.
1960-1968 last major period of work / disappoint-
- critical - u.s. i. merit public housing
- "good model fit into some comprehensive housing plan"*

Session 3B: The Chittenden Parlor

Speaker: Francois-Auguste de Montequin, Chairman
Art History
The University of Georgia

Title: Spanish St. Augustine During the Colonial Period:
Evolution of the Oldest City in the United States.

Moderator: Laurence C. Gerckens

Session 3C: The Hartman Parlor

Speaker: David Reed, Visiting Associate Professor
School of Architecture and Urban Planning
University of Wisconsin at Milwaukee

Title: Christopher Tunnard: Planner and Educator

*- he stuck by
comprehensive planning even under criticism
- opposed to citizen participation in the plan making itself;*

Session 3D: The Vendome Parlor

Speaker: Peter Marcuse, Professor
Graduate School of Architecture and Planning
Columbia University

Title: Does Land Speculation Explain the Gridiron Plan?
Expansion of Manhattan's Grid After the Civil War

Moderator: Carl Abbott
Respondent: Marc Weiss

12:00 - 1:20 pm: Luncheon (Grand Ballroom)

Hearty Bean Soup
Open Faced Prime Rib Sandwich on a Kaiser Role
O'Brien Potatoes
Vegetable
Carrot Cake with Sour Cream Icing
Tea and Coffee

1:40 - 2:20 pm: Papers on American Planning History (Session No. 4)

Session 4A: The Deshler Parlor

Speaker: Joel Schwartz, Associate Professor
Department of History
Montclair State College, N.J.

Title: Site Planning at the New York City Housing Authority in the 1930s

Session 4B: The Chittenden Parlor

Speaker: Carl A. Saladino
Cincinnati, Ohio

Title: Almost Washington: The Columbus Plan of 1908

Respondent: Jane McMaster

Session 4C: The Hartman Parlor

Speaker: Christopher Silver, Associate Professor
Dept. of Urban Studies and Planning
Virginia Commonwealth University

Title: Urban Planning in the New South: Observations on its History and Historiography

Session 4D: The Vendome Parlor

Subject: Alternative Forms for a National Organization for American Planning History

Resource: Laurence C. Gerckens

2:40 - 3:20 pm: Papers on American Planning History (Session No. 5)

Session 5A: The Deshler Parlor

Speaker: Carol J. Brown, Graduate Student
City and Regional Planning Department
The Ohio State University

Title: The Disagreement Between Governor Rexford Tugwell and Alfred Bettman Over Legislation Creating a Planning Board for Puerto Rico: 1942-42

Moderator: Steve Hankey
Respondent: Laurence C. Gerckens

Session 5B: The Chittenden Parlor

Speaker: Howard H. Foster, Jr., Director
Community Planning and Area Development
University of Rhode Island

Title: Planning the Newport, Rhode Island Waterfront, With F. L. Olmsted, Jr. and Arthur Shurtleff

Session 5C: The Hartman Parlor

Speaker: Patricia Burgess Stach, Doctoral Candidate
Departments of History and City & Reg. Planning
The Ohio State University

Title: Rebuilding the City: Urban History for Planning Historians

Moderator: Jon Teaford
Respondent: Marc Weiss

Session 5D: The Vendome Parlor

Subject: Alternative Forms for a National Organization for American Planning History (Continued).

3:40 - 4:20 pm: Papers on American Planning History (Session No. 6)

Session 6A: The Deshler Parlor

Speaker: Jane M. McMaster, Research Librarian
Engineering Library
The Ohio State University

Title: Planning in Columbus, Ohio: A Documentary History

Respondent: Carl A. Saladino

Session 6B: The Chittenden Parlor

Speaker: Marc A. Weiss
School of Urban Policy and Planning
University of Illinois/Chicago

Title: The Rise of the Community Builders: American Real Estate Developers, Urban Planners, and the Creation of Modern Residential Subdivisions

Session 6C: The Hartman Parlor

Speaker: Lorrie Kirst, Graduate Student
City and Regional Planning Department
The Ohio State University

Title: Proportional Representation and Planning in Cincinnati

Moderator: Nancy B. Reger
Respondent: Patricia Stach

Session 6D: The Vendome Parlor

Subject: Approaches to Teaching Planning History (1)

Resources: Donald Krueckeberg, Rutgers University
Seymour Mandelbaum, University of Pennsylvania*
Laurence C. Gerckens, Ohio State University

4:40 - 5:20 pm: Papers on American Planning History (Session No. 7)

Session 7A: The Deshler Parlor

Speaker: Seymour J. Mandelbaum, Professor Department of City and Regional Planning
University of Pennsylvania

Title: Prolegomenon to an Unprofessional History of City Planning in the United States

Moderator: Marc Weiss
Respondent: Donald Krueckeberg

Session 7B: The Chittenden Parlor

Speaker: Albert Z. Guttenberg, Professor
Dept. of Urban and Regional Planning
University of Illinois/Urbana

Title: Scientific Management, Unionism and City Planning

Session 7C: The Hartman Parlor

Speaker: Nancy G. Reger, Graduate Student
City and Regional Planning Department
The Ohio State University

Title: The Roles of James Metzenbaum in "Euclid v. Ambler"

Moderator: Lorrie Kirst
Respondent: Laurence C. Gerckens

Session 7D: The Vendome Parlor

Subject: Approaches to Teaching Planning History (2)

Resources: Eugenie Birch, Hunter College*
Peter Marcuse, Columbia University*
Carl Abbott, Portland State University*

6:30 - 7:30 pm Banquet (Grand Ballroom)

Scallops Cote d'Azur
Fresh Fruit Sorbet
Rock Cornish Game Hen
Duchess Potatoes
Vegetable
Chocolate Mousse Extraordinaire
Coffee and Tea

8:00 - 9:00 Featured Speaker (Grand Ballroom)

Professor John W. Reps
Cornell University

Planning the Growth of a Colonial Town:
Savannah in the Nineteenth Century.

9:00 - 10:00 Reception for Mr. & Mrs. Reps (Jefferson Room)

S A T U R D A Y , M A R C H 1 5 , 1 9 8 6

7:30 - 8:30

(Breakfast on own; hotel restaurants available, and Classic Buffet on the Mezzanine, same as Friday.)

9:00 - 9:40 am: Papers on American Planning History (Session No. 8)

Session 8A: The Deshler Parlor

Speaker: Clyde Weaver, Associate Professor
Graduate School of Public & International Affairs
University of Pittsburgh

Title: The Uses of the Past in the Present: The Case of Regional Planning in the 1930s

Session 8B: The Chittenden Parlor

Speaker: R. Eugene Harper, Professor
Department of History
University of Charleston, W. Va.

Title: Nitro, West Virginia: An Emergency Industrial New Town of World War I

Respondent: Jane McMaster

Session 8C: The Hartman Parlor

Panel: On the Uses of Oral History for Planning Historians

Panelists: Eugenie Ladner Birch, Associate Professor
Department of Urban Planning
Hunter College, New York City

Donald Krueckeberg, Professor
Department of Urban Planning
Rutgers University

10:00 -10:40 am: Papers on American Planning History (Session No. 9)

Session 9A: The Deshler Parlor

Speaker: Albert Z. Guttenberg & Louis B. Wetmore
Department of Urban and Regional Planning
University of Illinois/Urbana

Title: What's in a Name Change?: City Planning and Landscape Architecture at the University of Illinois

Session 9B: The Chittenden Parlor

Speaker: Ruth Eckdish Knack, Senior Editor
Planning Magazine
American Planning Association, Chicago

Title: Lustron: A Short-lived Experiment in Assembly Line Housing

Session 9C: The Hartman Parlor

Panel: The Robert Moses Project (1)*

Panelists: David Perry, SUNY/Buffalo*
Jon Lines, SUNY/Buffalo*

11:00 - 11:40 am: Papers on American Planning History (Session No. 10)

Session 10A: The Deshler Parlor

Speaker: Robert Sanford Cornish, Associate Professor
Department of Urban and Regional Planning
Texas A & M University

Title: Project: The History of Planning in Texas

Session 10B: The Chittenden Parlor

Speaker: John R. Mullin, Associate Professor
Regional Planning Program
University of Massachusetts at Amherst

Title: Textiles to High Tech: New Model Towns in New England to 1970

Session 10C: The Hartman Parlor

Panel: The Robert Moses Project (2)*

Panelists: William Jones*

Session 10D: The Vendome Parlor

Speaker: James T. Talley, Systems Analyst
Instructional Development
Ohio State University

Title: Hands-on Demonstration of Computer-Managed Testing for a Course in American City and Regional Planning History

12:00 - 1:20 pm: Business Luncheon (Grand Ballroom)

Chef's Soup
London Broil, Jus Lie'
Red-skin Potatoes
Giant Eclair
Tea and Coffee

Official creation of a national association for American city and regional planning history

Awarding of Conference Citations

1:40 - 4:30 pm: Registration of Charter Members of the new association in the Mezzanine Lobby.

1:40 - 2:20 pm: Papers on American Planning History (Session No. 11)

Session 11A: The Deshler Parlor

Speaker: Steven J. Hankey, Graduate Student
City and Regional Planning Department
The Ohio State University

Title: A Biographic Sketch: G. Gordon Whitnall, Founder of the First American County Planning Commission

Moderator: Carol J. Brown
Respondent: Laurence C. Gerckens

Session 11B: The Chittenden Parlor

Speaker: R. Bruce Stephenson, Graduate Student
Department of History
Emory University

Title: The Image of the New South City and Urban Planning.
St. Petersburg, Florida: 1921-1930

Session 11C: The Hartman Parlor

Speaker: Joan E. Draper, Associate Professor
College of Environmental Design
University of Colorado at Boulder

Title: Paris-by-the-Lake: Sources of Burnham's
Plan of Chicago

2:40 - 3:20 pm: Papers on American Planning History (Session No. 12)

Session 12A: The Deshler Parlor

Speaker: Darrell Pappa, Graduate Student
Department of Architecture
The Ohio State University

Title: The First Major Test of the Powers of the Cincinnati City Planning Commission:
The California Affair

Respondent: Laurence C. Gerckens

Session 12B: The Chittenden Parlor

Speaker: Kaye Haire Huggins, Associate Professor
Department of History
Methodist College, Fayetteville, N.C. 28301

Title: Planned Communities of the South: Works of Earle S. Draper, 1915-1930

3:40 - 4:20 pm: Papers on American Planning History (Session No. 13)

Session 13A: The Deshler Parlor

Speaker: Cheryl Lovely, Graduate Student
Public Administration
The Ohio State University

Title: Elisabeth Herlihy, First Woman Member of ACPI:
A Biographic Sketch

Session 13B: The Chittenden Parlor

Panel: Planning Response to Fiscal Crisis:
A Historical Perspective

Panelists: Richard L. Florida, Assistant Professor
City & Regional Planning Department
The Ohio State University

Andrew Jonas, Graduate Student
Geography Department
The Ohio State University

This Conference Was Made Possible

In Part

By The Generous Support

Of

The Huntington National Bank

Bohm-NBBJ

Feinknopf, Macioce and Schappa

The Nationwide Insurance Company

The Skilken Foundation
